Regulations for the competition and evaluation of poster presentations of the PM'23 Conference

1. The Poznan Branch of the Polish Physical Society honours an outstanding scientific presentation at the Physics of Magnetism'23 scientific conference (hereinafter referred to as the Conference), held in Poznan from June 26-30, 2023.
2. The Scientific Award (hereinafter referred to as the Award) is given for the best poster presentation presented at the Conference.
3. Candidates for the Award are all persons presenting poster presentations at the Conference. A participant who does not want his/her presentation to be evaluated shall report this fact to the Conference Organizers, who shall inform the President of the Poznan Branch of the Polish Physical Society, Assoc. Prof. Andrzej Lapinski.
4. The selection of the best poster presentation is made by the Evaluation Commission (hereinafter referred to as the Commission), appointed by the President of the Poznan Branch of the Polish Physical Society.
5. Members of the Commission are employees of Poznan universities and research institutes who are members of the Poznan Branch of the Polish Physical Society:
 - a. Bogdan Idzikowski
 - b. Andrzej Łapiński
 - c. Paweł Ławniczak
 - d. Sławomir Mamica
 - e. Ireneusz Weymann
6. The Committee for evaluation of poster presentations does not include the authors of the presented works.
7. Evaluation criteria:
 - (a) content, merit,
 - (b) originality,
 - (c) methodology,
 - (d) manner of presentation of the issue.
8. The Commission meeting on the selection of the best poster will be held after the second series of poster presentations (June 29, 2023).
9. The Committee evaluates and prepares the minutes of its deliberations before the end of the PM'23 Conference.
10. The announcement of the Commission's verdict and the awarding of the Prize will take place on June 30, 2023, at the official closing of the Conference.
11. The prize is a Certificate for the Best Poster at the Conference (in English) and a cash prize of 150€ (in words, one hundred and fifty euros). The cash prize will be transferred by bank transfer to the account provided by the Prize winner immediately after the PM'23 Conference.
12. On the Certificate signed by the President of the Poznań Branch of the Polish Physical Society, the members of the Commission will be listed, and the logo of the Poznań Branch of the Polish Physical Society will be displayed.
